

CONSERVATORIUM

AMSTERDAM

Hermitage – Jewels! The Glitter of the Russian court

Van Gogh museum – Exhibition Jean-Francois Millet, "The seeds of the Modern Art"

Rembrandt & Velasquez

Stedelijk museum – Chagall, Picasso, Mondrian & others – Migrant Artists in Paris

Dear Guest,

Warm welcome to Conservatorium Hotel and the world-famous Museum district of Amsterdam. Just on your doorstep / a stone throw away you will find the country finest museums. We would love to introduce them to you with this small brochure.

Rijksmuseum – Rembrandt and Velázquez exhibition

Until 19 January 2020

Rembrandt and Velázquez are the two greatest 17th century masters in their respective countries. One came from the Protestant Netherlands, the other from Catholic Spain. The Rijksmuseum and the Museo Nacional del Prado are bringing these masters together for the first time.

Van Gogh museum – Exhibition Jean-Francois Millet,
“The seeds of the Modern Art”

Until 12 January 2020

What do artists such as Van Gogh, Monet, Munch and Dalí have in common? They were all inspired by the French artist Jean-François Millet. Discover Millet's oeuvre and the work of the many artists whom he inspired in their autumn exhibition. Millet's work inspired the art of numerous well-known artists, such as Vincent van Gogh, Camille Pissarro, Claude Monet, Winslow Homer, Edvard Munch, Kazimir Malevich and Salvador Dalí.

Hermitage – Jewels! The Glitter of the Russian court

Until 15 March 2020

One of the Hermitage greatest treasures is the fabulous jewellery collection. Together with many portraits a profusion of richly decorated gowns and ensemble once worn by the highest echelons at the Russian court in St Petersburg, they presented two centuries in fashionable jewels. Meet the country's flamboyant empresses – Anna, Elizabeth and Catherine the Great – as well as grand dukes and duchesses, tsarinas and noble fashionistas.

Stedelijk museum – Chagall, Picasso, Mondrian & others – Migrant Artists in Paris

Until 2 February 2020

“The 700 pieces collection” – STEDELIJK BASE shows highlights in art and design from 1880 to now. The temporary Exhibition is about Chagall, Picasso, Mondrian and a number of other known and lesser-known immigrants artists in Paris in the years 1900-1950. A story of otherness, of what connects us, and of finding your way in a polarised society and art world.

Please see the Host Team for more information, fast lane tickets and an art guide to show you around these beautiful museums; in case preferred this can be combined with highlights of the historical heart of Amsterdam.