PENTHOUSE SUITE

Conservatorium hotel

This luxury hotel in Amsterdam has repeatedly been crowned the number one luxury hotel in the Netherlands. Located in the Museum Square district, the cultural heart of the city, the Conservatorium is an architectural masterpiece that combines a landmark heritage building with graceful, contemporary design. In this vibrant and elegant setting, the city's crown jewels – the Van Gogh Museum, Concertgebouw, Rijksmuseum, Vondelpark and Amsterdam's most indulgent shopping – are literally at your doorstep. For culture and for business, it's a location like no other.

Penthouse Suite

The elegant 170m² Penthouse Suite has floor to ceiling windows that overlook the neo-Gothic building of the historical Conservatorium, courtyard and Brasserie with a view of the Rijksmuseum and Amsterdam beyond.

Furnished with Persian rugs, the large, bright living room and dining room have personalized pantry support for special events or dinners for up to eight guests. Featuring a super-size 80-inch monitor screen, the dining room can be used as a private cinema or entertainment area. Flashes of Dutch history are found in decorative items such as old stone Bols Jenever bottles, Royal Delft ceramics and porcelain by Lammers&Lammers and Makkum Tichelaar.

The Penthouse Suite has a dedicated iPad available for its guests which can be used for all technical in-suite features such as lighting, sound system and television. In exclusive use for the guests you can find a HD800 Sennheiser headphone as well as a pair of Stutterheim raincoats for rainy days.

The very spacious bathroom is opulently designed with a freestanding oval stone bath, a large separate rainfall shower and a bidet along with bathroom LCD mirror TV and gorgeously plump Micro Cotton towels. Next to that, a luxury amenity collection is featured in the bathroom.

The Penthouse Suite has a private entrance as well as a second side entrance, direct access to the garage and a separate area for styling with a special make-up desk.
